

Caroline Grace is a singer/songwriter with a soulful voice and powerful lyrics. The daughter of legendary Off-Road Racer, Carl Renezeder, Caroline is no stranger to the spotlight but is now stepping into her own as she inspires others through her soulful and honest music. While being a full time student at The University of Southern California, Caroline is simultaneously pursuing her passion for music and desire to share her gift with the world. Her sound is wide-ranging from acoustic pop to R&B/Soul while remaining constant in her candid lyrics that demand attention. At just 21 years old, Caroline has already worked with some of the biggest names in the industry and is preparing to release her debut Pop/ R&B EP 'Tell Me How You Really Feel' this coming May.